

Heirloom Sewing by serger and sewing machine

Be sure to check your local Baby Lock retailer for the notions and supplies shown in the video as well as any laces, trims and fine fabrics they may carry. If you can't find anything locally, here are a few resources for laces, trims and finer fabrics for heirloom sewing and serging.

<https://www.classicsewingmagazine.com/> - educational and inspirational heirloom sewing projects, techniques and resources

www.marthapullen.com – additional education resources

www.thesewingroom.com – located in Birmingham, AL a fabulous heirloom sewing shop and Baby Lock retailer www.farmhousefabrics.com – located in Beech Island, SC they have a wide selection of fabrics, laces and trims.

<https://chadwickheirlooms.com/> - located in Richmond, VA they have a wide selection of fabrics, laces and trims.

<http://www.laceimports.com/> - A wholesale and retail company specializing in heirloom laces and trims

<https://www.ultimatestash.com/> - John Deere has some of the most beautifully digitized Vintage Lace designs

www.myembroideryhaven.com – In the hoop embroidered insertion designs to be stitched on your embroidery machine www.customkeepsakes.com - a beautiful variety of heirloom designs from edgings to doll dresses and more

FOR THE LOVE OF SEWING